

I know my name and address

1. Ask a grown up at home to tell you your full address, including your postcode
2. Write it in the little house below
3. Learn your address so that you can say it without having to read it
4. Play at pretending to ring the emergency services. Tell them your full address
5. Have fun colouring in your house

