

Chat with a grown up about each of the pictures and stories below then write under each one saying what you think the answer is.

Being Safe with Medicine You find some tablets on the kitchen table at home. What should you do? 	Being Safe with Medicine You have a headache while at a friend's house. Your friend's mum offers you some medicine. What should you do? 	Being Safe with Medicine You see some children playing with different coloured tablets in the playground at school. What should you do?
Being Safe with Medicine You tell your friend you have a sore throat. She offers you some medicine the doctor gave her, when she had a sore throat last year. What should you do? 	Being Safe with Medicine You see your little brother playing with the cough syrup bottle. What should you do? 	Where should medicines be kept?